NOTA

Quando, no início da última década do século XX, o autor se viu confrontado com a necessidade de produzir a presente concordância, uma só mais abrangente compilação das obras de Walter Pater se encontrava ao dispor de quantos pretendessem estudá-las ou tão-somente lê-las.

O autor refere-se a The New Library Edition of the Works of Walter Pater (London, Macmillan, 1910), composta por dez volumes.

Perante essa circunstância, a presente concordância, é óbvio, apenas poderia apresentar a numeração de volume, página e linha que se encontra determinada pelo formato físico dessa mesma edição.

Estava-se, então, a cerca de trinta anos do início da publicação, em 2019, da primeira edição crítica dos escritos de Pater (The Collected Works of Walter Pater), ora a ser dada a lume com a chancela da Oxford University Press e da responsabilidade, volume a volume, de autores de edição de reconhecida competência. Isto é, estava-se, então, a cerca de três décadas do aparecimento da edição das obras de Pater cuja fixação textual não poderá deixar de devir corpus de toda e qualquer concordância dessas mesmas obras que venha a ser produzida de ora em diante.

Desde que encetou a produção dos primeiros três dos quatro volumes que ora compõem a presente Concordância das Obras de Walter H. Pater, o autor acalentou o projeto de, um dia, os facultar a quantos pudessem desejar beneficiar da sua utilização.

Contudo, os anos foram passando sem que algum deles lhe tivesse facultado a concretização desse mesmo projeto. Sendo que isso mesmo ocorreu não obstante o acesso às fixações textuais que utilizou na qualidade de corpus, as fixações da New Library Edition, que replica os nove volumes da edição que a precedeu, a Edição de Luxe, de 1900–1901, e que, por conseguinte, apresenta, tal como ela, as versões textuais que o próprio Pater há preparado para publicação — não obstante o acesso a essas fixações textuais se ter tornado imensamente facilitado e relativamente pouco dispendioso a partir do aparecimento, em 2011, de The Works of Walter Pater.

Trata-se de reprodução, em formato físico e eletrónico, com a chancela da Cambridge University Press, dos textos dos oito volumes da Edição de Luxe (na verdade, dos nove volumes dessa edição, dado o desdobramento de Marius the Epicurean em dois tomos), de par a par com reprodução do(s) texto(s) do volume que a New Library Edition lhe adiciona, na qualidade de volume décimo: Essays from The Guardian.

Trata-se, pois, de versão moderna que mantém a numeração de volume, página e linha de The New Library Edition of the Works of Walter Pater — da edição que o presente autor há utilizado na qualidade de corpus —, e que, porquanto, efetivamente se constitui já não só texto de fácil acesso, mas também texto que faculta a utilização da presente Concordância das Obras de Walter H. Pater.

Cerca de trinta anos atrás, o autor não dispunha (quase ninguém, então, dispunha) de software propositadamente produzido para desempenhar a função de concordancer. Em resultado, viu-se, ele, constrangido a efetuar a presente concordância de modo algo artesanal (e, por isso, difícil e moroso). Isto é, viu-se constrangido a proceder do seguinte modo: (i) a digitalizar as páginas de cada um dos dez volumes da New Library Edition; (ii) a levar a cabo, via da aplicação Omnipage, o reconhecimento ótico dos caracteres (OCR) contidos nas imagens digitais que obteve por esse modo; (iii) a corrigir manualmente o texto eletrónico que lhe foi facultado por tal reconhecimento; (iv) a utilizar o processador de texto Word para alinhar, numerar e paginar esse mesmo texto, bem como para referenciar cada uma das suas palavras e, de seguida, proceder à respetiva indexação e ordenação.

É com agrado, que o autor ora vê concretizado, por fim, o projeto que atrás referiu — já que, com isso, um pouco mais se avança o seu ensejo de contribuir, ainda que em medida modesta, para o estudo do espólio literário que Walter Pater há legado sobretudo à mente ocidental; e, pois, contribuir para o estudo da literatura inglesa.

Esse seu agrado, porém, só poderá, na verdade, vir a ser justificado — assim o ajuíza —, caso quantos eventualmente conceberem esta concordância "ferramenta útil" o fizerem (por palavras do próprio Pater cujo importe poucas vezes terá sido compreendido) "Alive to the value of an atmosphere in which every term finds its utmost degree of expression"; na qualidade, porquanto, de quem, "with all the jealousy of a lover of words", "will resist a constant tendency on the part of the majority of those who use them to efface the distinctions of language."

2. Palavras Indexadas

Dos escritos que foram selecionados para indexação, a presente concordância inclui: (i) A totalidade das palavras do texto em Inglês (quer sejam palavras da autoria de Pater, quer sejam palavras das citações que ele apresenta), com exceção apenas daquelas que são chamadas 'palavras de alta frequência' (tais como os artigos 'a', 'an', 'the'; os pronomes 'what', 'which', 'who', 'whom', 'whose', 'this', 'that', 'these', 'those'; as preposições 'for', 'of', 'on', 'in', 'at', 'to', etc.). (ii) A totalidade das palavras francesas, alemães, italianas e latinas que são utilizadas por Pater, bem como as dos textos nessas línguas que por ele são citados.

Os termos gregos que Pater utiliza isoladamente e as palavras das citações em grego que ele apresenta não se encontram indexadas, bem como todos os algarismos e números (quer em numeração árabe, quer em numeração romana) e todas as palavras em Inglês que são da autoria de editor ou que surgem em páginas de rosto e de título.

Sempre que tal se tornou possível, os erros tipográficos que alguns dos textos indexados ocasionalmente apresentam foram corrigidos. No entanto, as variantes que ocorrem na grafia de algumas palavras e de alguns nomes próprios foram respeitadas, bem como aquelas que resultam da utilização de certas palavras ora como palavras compostas ora como palavras não-compostas.

3. Abreviaturas

As abreviaturas que a presente concordância utiliza para identificar os títulos dos volumes e dos artigos em que cada uma das palavras indexadas ocorre são as seguintes:

— New Library Edition of the Works of Walter Pater (London, Macmillan, 1910 e várias reimpressões posteriores):

• Appreciations. With an Essay on Style (vol. V)	APP
• Essays from The Guardian (vol. X)	EG

4. Referências de Palavra

As referências de palavra — isto é, as referências que situam nos textos indexados as diversas ocorrências de cada uma das palavras que os compõem — são constituídas por três elementos: (i) a ABREVIATURA DO TÍTULO do volume ou do artigo disperso em cujo texto determinada palavra possa ocorrer; (ii) o NÚMERO DA PÁGINA em que determinada palavra possa ocorrer — a qual tanto pode ser página de um dos dez volumes da New Library Edition como do volume do periódico em que cada um dos três escritos dispersos que se encontram indexados foi dado a lume; (iii) o NÚMERO DA LINHA em que, numa página, determinada palavra possa ocorrer.

A abreviatura de título de volume ou de artigo encontra-se separada dos restantes dois elementos (número de página e número de linha) por um espaço, e, por sua vez, esses mesmos elementos encontram-se separados um do outro por uma barra (/).

Assim sendo, teremos, por exemplo, 'APP 63/7' como uma das várias referências da palavra UNIVERSE, na qual 'APP' surge na qualidade de abreviatura de título (Appreciations), '63' surge como número de página e '7' surge como número de linha dessa mesma página.

Quando se trata de palavras que ocorrem em Epígrafes, Dedicatórias, Títulos, Subtítulos e Cabeçalhos, a cujas linhas não foi atribuída qualquer numeração, o número de linha encontra-se substituído, respetivamente, pelas seguintes abreviaturas:

— Epig
— Ded
— Tit
— SubTit
— Cab

Nos casos de palavras que ocorrem em notas de rodapé, verifica-se o seguinte: (i) o número de linha da nota é substituído por 'n' ('nota'), quando a nota é constituída por uma só linha (e.g., 'APP 162/n'); o número de linha da nota é seguida de 'n' ('nota'), quando a nota é constituída por mais de uma linha (e.g., 'REN 16/8n').

5. Referências de Linha

Os textos que a presente concordância indexa não apresentam numeração de linha na sua versão imprensa. Assim sendo, foram seguidos, naquilo que diz respeito às referências de linha, os seguintes critérios:

(i) Às linhas de Epígrafes e Dedicatórias, bem como às de Títulos, Subtítulos e Cabeçalhos, não foi atribuída, como já foi referido, qualquer numeração.

Por essa razão, a referência 'WILLIAM: pwm 300/Cab', por exemplo, indica que a palavra 'WILLIAM' ocorre no cabeçalho da página 300 do volume de The Westminster Review em que o artigo "Poems by William Morris" (pwm) foi publicado, mas não indica em qual das sete linhas desse cabeçalho.

Do mesmo modo — isto é, pela mesma razão —, quando uma palavra ocorre mais de uma vez numa Epígrafe ou Dedicatória, bem como num Título, Subtítulo ou Cabeçalho, essa ocorrência encontra-se referenciada uma só vez.

Assim sendo, a referência 'WILLIAM: pwm 300/Cab', por exemplo, não indica que a palavra 'WILLIAM' surge três vezes (e não só uma), em linhas diferentes do cabeçalho da página 300 do volume de The Westminster Review em que o artigo "Poems by William Morris" (pwm) foi publicado.

(ii) Todas as referências de linhas de texto ('7' em, por exemplo, 'APP 63/7') resultam da numeração das linhas dos escritos que foram indexados de 1 em diante e a partir daquela que inicia o corpo do texto. Tais referências não entram em conta, por conseguinte, com as linhas de eventuais Epígrafes, Dedicatórias, Títulos, Subtítulos e Cabeçalhos.

(iii) As referências de linhas de notas de rodapé resultam da numeração de tais linhas de 1 em diante e a partir da primeira delas, quer nos casos em que uma determinada nota de rodapé ocupa mais de uma linha, quer naqueles em que existem duas ou mais notas de rodapé numa mesma página. Assim sendo, todas as linhas que constituem mais de uma nota de rodapé foram consideradas linhas de um só bloco de texto — o qual é critério de que decorre que a referência '/6n', por exemplo, poderá eventualmente remeter para a primeira linha de uma segunda nota que se encontre antecedida por uma nota que ocupe cinco linhas.

Nos casos em que um bloco de texto que é constituído por uma nota, ou por duas ou mais notas, se inicia numa página e é continuado na página seguinte, considerou-se a segunda parte de tal bloco de texto (a parte que surge na página seguinte) um novo bloco de texto de notas. Sendo assim, a numeração das linhas que constituem essa segunda parte, ou esse novo bloco de texto de notas, encontra-se feita de 1 em diante.

(iv) Quando, nos textos indexados, uma palavra se encontra hifenizada e, por isso, é continuada na linha a seguir àquela em que se inicia, a referência de linha que lhe há sido atribuída diz sempre respeito à primeira dessas duas linhas (a linha em que a palavra se inicia) — inclusivamente nos casos em que a hifenização acontece no fim da última linha de uma página, e a palavra é continuada na primeira linha da página seguinte.

(v) A mesma coisa acontece nos casos de palavras compostas. Especificamente, quando o hífen que divide a palavra coincide, no final de uma linha, com o hífen que une os dois elementos que constituem a própria palavra; ou quando o hífen que divide a palavra coincide, no final de uma linha, com um dos dois ou mais hífenes que unem os dois ou mais elementos que constituem a própria palavra.

6. Referências de Palavras Compostas

Para além do que acaba de ser dito acerca das referências de linha de palavras compostas, há ainda a considerar o seguinte: que, se todas as palavras compostas se encontram indexadas alfabeticamente em função do primeiro dos elementos que as compõem (e.g., 'Council' em COUNCIL-BOARD), os segundos e subsequentes elementos dessas palavras (e.g., 'Thorn' e 'Wood' em WHITE-THORN-WOOD) também se encontram indexados individualmente e, do mesmo modo, por ordem alfabética (com exceção, é claro, dos casos em que tais elementos entram na categoria das palavras de alta frequência que atrás foram identificadas como palavras não-indexadas).

Sendo assim, encontrar-se-á a palavra composta WHITE-THORN-WOOD, por exemplo, indexada alfabeticamente sob a letra W — seguida da referência de palavra (abreviatura de título, número de página e número de linha) que situa a sua única ocorrência em todos os textos que foram indexados (ME1 231/10) —, mas também se encontrará as palavras 'Thorn' e 'Wood' indexadas, sob as letras T e W, respetivamente, com a mesma referência de palavra (ME1 231/10). Isto é, mas também se encontrará as palavras 'Thorn' e 'Wood' indexadas isoladamente, na qualidade de palavras que entram na composição da palavra composta WHITE-THORN-WOOD.

Nos casos em que a hifenização tipográfica de uma palavra que é composta por dois elementos ocorre no final da última linha de uma página, e o segundo de tais elementos surge na primeira linha da página seguinte (porque o hífen de divisão coincide com o hífen de composição), a referência de palavra desse segundo elemento, considerado na qualidade de palavra simples, apresenta os números da página e da linha em que de facto ele surge, e não os números de página e de linha em que se inicia a palavra em cuja composição entra.

A mesma coisa acontece, é claro, nos casos em que a hifenização tipográfica de uma palavra que é composta por mais de dois elementos ocorre no final da última linha de uma página. E, assim sendo, se tal circunstância se verificasse com a palavra WHITE-THORN-WOOD — se, por exemplo, o hífen que une 'Thorn' a 'White' coincidisse com o hífen de divisão no final da linha 31.ª (a última) da página 100 de ME1 —, encontraríamos 'MEl 100/31' como referência de palavra de WHITE-THORN-WOOD, mas encontraríamos 'MEl 101/1' como referência de palavra de 'Thorn' e 'Wood', nas entradas (sob as letras T e W, respetivamente) destes dois vocábulos qua elementos constitutivos da própria palavra composta WHITE-THORN-WOOD.

7. Ordenação

Os critérios que foram adotados na ordenação das palavras que constam da presente concordância são os seguintes:

(i) Todas as palavras foram ordenadas por ordem alfabética crescente (de A a Z), bem como todos os elementos que entram na constituição de palavras compostas.

(ii) Na ordenação alfabética de todas as palavras e dos elementos que vêm de ser referidos, foram tidos como caracteres prioritários tanto aqueles que se apresentam seguidos por um ponto ('.') como aqueles que se encontram encimados por sinal diacrítico (e.g., 'Â') — sendo esta a razão por que, na presente concordância, 'W. P.', por exemplo, antecede todas as palavras que se iniciam com as letras 'WA', bem como a razão por que os vocábulos ÂME e AËRIAL, por exemplo, antecedem ABACK.

(iii) Todos os substantivos que ocorrem tanto na forma do singular como na do plural foram indexados com essas duas formas, ainda que a ordenação alfabética inevitavelmente tenha levado a que a segunda delas (a forma do plural) nem sempre surja imediatamente a seguir à primeira (a forma do singular). Isto é, ainda que a ordenação alfabética inevitavelmente tenha levado a que, por exemplo, entre a forma do singular AFFECTION e a forma do plural AFFECTIONS, surja o advérbio AFFECTIONATELY.

(iv) Todas as contrações com o 's' do caso possessivo foram ignoradas, sendo esta a razão por que MAN'S, por exemplo, surge indexado apenas como MAN.

(v) Todas as contrações com vogal inicial foram ignoradas, pelo que, no caso de L'AMOR, por exemplo, se encontrará o artigo contraído (' L' ') indexado sob a letra L e o substantivo (AMOR) indexado sob a letra A.

(vi) Os caracteres que entram na composição de siglas e de algumas abreviaturas separados entre si por um ponto ('.') — como acontece, por exemplo, no caso da abreviatura 'S. T.', de 'S. T. Coleridge' — mantêm esse mesmo sinal de pontuação, sendo esta a razão por que se encontram ordenados alfabeticamente na qualidade de caracteres prioritários.

(vii) Abreviaturas como 'Mr.', 'Mrs.,' etc., mantêm o respetivo ponto final, sendo esta a razão por que, do mesmo modo, se encontram ordenadas alfabeticamente em função de os caracteres que as terminam terem sido considerados caracteres prioritários.

(viii) Expressões exclamativas como 'O!', 'Ah!', etc., surgem, porém, desprovidas de qualquer sinal de pontuação, bem como todas e quaisquer palavras que nos respetivos textos se apresentam seguidas de ponto de interrogação ou de travessão.

A presente concordância é composta por 25.372 entradas.
